This application is being made in accordance with the "Town of Ingersoll Downtown Revitalization Project". The undersigned hereby applies for the Façade Improvement Program in accordance with the application, drawings,

The decision of the Façade Review Committee is final. We reserve the sole right to approve or deny funding on any project even though it may meet the stated eligibility criteria. Because the Committee has set aside a limited amount for façade and signage improvements funding each year, priority will be give to projects that are perceived to have a higher level of need and or ability to be completed within the stated time frame.
