Ingersoll Municipal Heritage Committee

Overview

The Ingersoll Municipal Heritage Committee (MHC) is established under the authority of the Ontario Heritage Act, and exists to advise Council on the identification, protection and promotion of cultural heritage resources within the community and to assist Council on all matters relating to the legal designation and conservation of properties of cultural heritage value or interest.

The Municipal Heritage Committee (MHC)'s role is advisory and consultative and once established, Council is required under the Ontario Heritage Act to consult with the committee on:

- The designation of individual properties and of Heritage Conservation Districts;
- Applications to alter designated properties;
- Applications to demolish or remove properties of cultural heritage value or interest;
- Applications to repeal designation bylaws; and,
- Easements or covenants.

Further information on the role and responsibilities of a Municipal Heritage Committee can be located by following the link listed under the 'Further Information' section of this document.
