4. Business arising from the minutes
 - Curtis to reach out to Tillsonburg to determine when their next meeting is
5. New Business
 - a) Inventory of physicians and opportunities
 - Article in shopping news, Ian Hons accepting new patients and at the bottom of the article it mentions this committee

- Dr. Walsh has joined the same team as Dr. Taylor at the Hospital, still a need to recruit at least one more physician
- Melanie has held many conversations with Dr. Wolgemot, Taylor, Pariser, among others and there may be a greater need than Health Force Ontario predicts and is exploring a survey modeled after other communities to use to determine a more accurate number of patients that need a physician
- Current physicians in the Family Health Organization are required to divide their time between the emergency department, hospital, and their practice
- The old operating rooms is vacant and available for 3-4 additional physicians however significant renovations may be required
- Discussion around corporate and naming sponsorships and this would be permissible by the hospital once an accurate cost estimate of the work required

b) Activities and Ideas

- Melanie suggested a welcome package to welcome new doctors, physicians that are filling in
- Press releases for new physicians, nurse practitioners,
- Focus on retention as well, and not just physicians but all staff, nurse practitioners, nurses, etc.

c) Round Table and General Discussion
