

Becky Huntley

Basketball

Becky Huntley grew up outside of Salford, Ontario, attending both Harris Heights Public School and Victory Memorial School before going to high school at I.D.C.I. During the school year, Becky represented the high school at track and field events, specializing in shot put. She spent the summer months playing baseball for the 1989 Ontario champs, the Shelton Ford Midget Girls Softball Team.

After high school, Becky attended Fanshawe and began playing basketball for the Falcons. At the end of her second season with the team, they had two provincial championship titles, and Becky had multiple All-Star recognitions and MVP awards. Becky received the ultimate honour when, upon graduating, the school retired her jersey.

Since graduation, Becky has made multiple contributions to local sports, most notably her coordination of basketball summer camps at the Ingersoll Arena.
