

Jim McCann

Golf

Jim was born August 20, 1945 in Arnprior, Ontario, but moved to Ingersoll in 1970 to replace John Engel as the golf pro at the Ingersoll Golf and Country Club. Jim decided to make golf a career in 1964 at the age of 18, and he received his professional designation upon graduating from high school in 1965. In 1981 and 1982, Jim teamed up with Belmont Golf and Country Club pro George Loughlean to win two consecutive Rolex Pro – Pro Best Ball championships. These Ontario championship tournaments for golf professionals were held at the North Halton Golf and Country Club in Georgetown.

Jim also won many “pro-ams” and other South-Western Ontario tournaments during the 17 years he worked as the pro at the Ingersoll Golf and Country Club. Over the years, Jim was involved in many changes to improve the course and lifestyle at the local country club.
